

Paragraph 31 (footnote)

1. In Roman Catholic doctrine, infallibility is only the preservation of the judgement from error, not positive inspiration. Moreover the infallibility ascribed to the bishop of Rome is his ^agift to be, in certain circumstances and under precise conditions, the ^{the}organ of the infallibility of the Church.