TO ALL MEMBERS OF ARCIC

I have great pleasure in circulating the following: the Dumont commentary on Venice, Professor Geoffrey Lampe's speech to the General Synod, Fr. Kallistos Ware's comment on the Statement, and my summary of the Steering Committee Meeting of 18th January.

Günther Gassmann has since agreed to submit comments on the Statements from the Faith and Order/WCC point of view.

The comments made by the Steering Committee have been taken into account in the drafting of an Archiepiscopal/Papal Common Declaration.

You will all wish to know that Julian Charley and his fiancée, Claire, are to be married on 7th May.

You will also perhaps know that Bishop McAadoo has just been elected Archbishop of Dublin. He would, I know, value your prayers.

There will be a further circulation later with a collection of ARCIC criticism and details of the Chichester meeting. Its dates are: Tuesday, August 30th - Thursday, September 8th.
