

ANGLICAN/ROMAN CATHOLIC INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION

TENTH MEETING: SALISBURY, 12TH - 20TH JANUARY 1979

---

O U T L I N E P R O G R A M M E

08.00 EUCHARIST/MASS (Old Chapel)
08.30 Breakfast
09.30 - 12.30 MORNING SESSIONS (New Chapel)
(11.0 Coffee)
(12.30 Bar)
13.00 Lunch
15.30 Tea
16.00 AFTERNOON SESSION (New Chapel)
18.15 EVENING PRAYER
(18.30 Bar)
19.00 Dinner
(21.00-22.00 Bar)

---

Chapel: The Revd. Christopher Hill and Fr. Edward Yarnold, SJ, will co-ordinate arrangements in conjunction with the Revd. Jeremy Younger, the College Chaplain. On Saturday, 13th, there will be a Roman Catholic Mass. On Sunday, 14th, the Anglican Eucharist will be the Cathedral Sung Eucharist at 10.00.

Vistors: The Dean of Salisbury will dine with the Commission on Saturday, 13th January, and Bishop John Howe hopes to visit the Commission on 16th January and to stay overnight at the College. Canon Gerald Whelan, Roman Catholic parish priest of Salisbury, will come to lunch on the 18th. The Bishop of Salisbury (Anglican) and the Bishop of Clifton (Roman Catholic) will both unfortunately be abroad at the time of the Conference.

Sunday, 14th January: Bishop Clark will preach at Sung Eucharist in the Cathedral at 10.00. The Morning Session will therefore start at 11.30.

Monday, 15th January Revd. P.C. Magee, Vicar of Bemerton, will lunch with the Commission and will conduct any members of the Commission who are interested to Bemerton Church with its associations with George Herbert.

Wednesday, 17th January: Work permitting, there will be no Afternoon Session. Subject to weather conditions, an informal expedition to Stonehenge will be arranged. Will those intending to take part please let Anne Tyler know by 09.30 on Monday, 15th January.

Friday, 19th January: The Clerk of Works of the Cathedral, Mr. Roy Spring, will join the Commission for lunch, and will be prepared to take a group of members on a detailed expedition over the Cathedral, including the roof.

Early Closing Day: Wednesday.