Dear Archbishop David, Archbishop Bernard,

Dear friends in Christ,

The Risen Lord gathers his scattered disciples into one community, breaks bread with them and pours out his Spirit upon them. As you gather in this Paschal season to pursue the great work of understanding and reconciliation between our Communions, I pray that you will all be deeply aware of the Risen Jesus and his Spirit.

In the many decades of ARCIC's work, we have discovered again and again how the Spirit returns us to the heart of our discipleship and gives us new words and insights for sharing the one apostolic faith. May this gift be yours in your work together.

With my love and blessings,

+ Rowan Cantuar:
