

5th October 1976

Dear Monsignor Moeller,

Thank you for your letter in response to my proposal to Cardinal Willebrands of the 9th February that there should be a theological consultation concerning the ordination of women to the priesthood. My proposal to the Cardinal was on the basis of the Note addressed to the Cardinal and myself by Anglicans and Roman Catholics in the informal discussions at the Secretariat for Unity last November.

I am very happy that the Secretariat feel that such a consultation could now take place and I shall be asking Bishop Howe to discuss the practical arrangements with you.

Yours sincerely,

Archbishop of Canterbury.
